“ GOING DOWN RIVER ”

What is really going down along the river on a wagon track.”

“BOOK - ONE” Part # 1 3rd Edition

By STORY TELLER

John Andrew Wiskus
U.S.A.F. RETIRED

A great story. For the little kid in all of us. To my children, grandchildren and yours. Interactive adventure for young folks, grandchildren, children, and yes, for all adults from age eight years of age up to folks at the young age of 108 years young. Also, for any part of the little kid in all of us. To my grandchildren and yours.

This story is mainly for all the men and women in the United States Armed Services, as for those both in the present US Military, like are right now and for those that were in the US Military. To them and to theirs and to our younger brothers and our younger sisters, their spouses and children that follows them for our fine and great U.S. of America => and for our own country. Please pray for the U. S. Military people presently in service and for those today after their service. Also, this story is to Praise GOD to my children, my grandchildren and to yours in an 1850s era adventure story for kids, teens, and grandchildren from age 8 years of age on up to folks at the young age of 109 plus years young. The story really starts on about page 90.

Really for the little kid still in all of us.

- - ----- < ^ ~ , , ~ ^ > ----- - -

{NOTE: Reading this as any real storyteller – a person must go way out far away sometimes and dig through old musty records and will find many items of importance to this or any story. And you will find many more items that are not important. Just like back in 1850 (as is still true for all kids today) and still true today, for folks really did and still do listen to tales and tall tales. They were the white folks, the Indian folks, the black folks, the China R R workers (Railroad builders back at that time) as their kids and were really all the kids and big folks too, were their favorite pass time. Now, as for story - telling, the story is not read. There is a big difference between real storytelling and just reading a story to others. In storytelling you are free to use your hands, to make hand gestures, to make bird and animal sounds, and to make face expressions, and to even use story props you hand make out of local clay, and maybe even move around some.

Yep, for sure, old stories really tell and do really teach about past things and about our history, gives us many important lessons and gives us many things just to survive on, even in our life, even for today. Told about a person's responsibility and has some good general life rules. Most Storytellers have many tales about many things. Most stories are true and are really historical. But. Some are told for only the story enjoyment and as an amusing tall story (maybe are just tall tales). Stories tell and teach history, teaches about peace and friendship. But also, a story may even be told to improve young one's mind. A story brings one's imagination and emotions out, to be alive, and sometimes they run together. Told and heard today so folks will understand yesterday for tomorrow.

Remember a story or tales as are told by a real storyteller and are to be enjoyed, and for all folks to learn something, and some are just as an amusing tale. Storytellers have many tales about many things. Most are true and historical. If not true, well then, maybe they should be.

For John, he is a storyteller and an okay kind of writer, but he is not an author, authors write fake stuff. There are hundreds of thousands of books in the library, and they all are made up stories. Yes, some great made - up stories from authors. Okay. He is a little bit of a history buff and hopefully maybe a fair story - teller. If it is in his stories – then it is true. However, if you find it is not – Well, then just maybe, it should be. He has done researched some on “Ghost”, “Spooks”, and the many tales of the ghosts who inhabit some homes (homes down south and also up north), then also some hotels, with some so called “Ghost” (both in Canada and Montana) Hotels, and one very old, old live play theater (the one in Iowa and then also two in North Dakota). John has done a lot of research on both Ghost and Spooks and has researched about many kinds of Angels.

Yes. I really can't write these following real life testimonies stories parts as complete and in enough detailed of these story parts to do them any real full and complete justice, but I just LOVE seeing God the Holy Spirit to use back then and yet today people to reach out, and touch people, both men and women through a few others and me too! This has even blessed me back more many times. Like the lady who had very wild and severe foot and ankle problem, she was healed, by God, and an old black lady confined to a wheelchair for eight and half - years and after a few prayers, really the same prayer repeated four times, as she got up, she was healed, and walked with no more body pain... Note End.}

Okay. Just where did this story “Going Down River” come from?

Mr. Hank Williams, which I am sure he is not the Hank Williams you may be thinking of. Mr. Hank Williams, is a Native American from Oklahoma. A friend of ours is of the same Native Americans tribe from Oklahoma that his grandfather and his father and he really did furnished horses, out to Holly Wood, California and also, they made mostly many trips with horses out to Sedona, AZ. for the many western movies Holly Wood also made there. You will soon understand his connection to this.

Mr. Winston Brown was a Native American from Oklahoma. I, John Wiskus and Bonnie Wiskus Square danced and Winston Brown who is /was also a Square Dancer in the same Square Dance Club and we are personal friends. Now, for Hank, when he was down on his poker luck, he kind of pushed Winston to let him stay with him, ah, there at his home for a time. Any way Hank had a rare stroke of luck. Hank Williams won a lot of money (well, he did win a few hundreds of dollars) and he also won the - 39 old Journals from back in 1849 - 1855. Hank was sure his real rich friend back in Penn. would front him, Hank and for him to take those old journals on out to Holly Wood, California and get those old journals to be made into a Holly Wood movie and then Hank, would be also be really rich and then he could drink all he ever wanted and with all his free time. Hank left those 39 - old journals at Winston’s home. Hank went out to Penn. on a bus.

He had a two - way ticket on the bus and would have well over $500 left to use when he got out there to Penn. A few days later Winston received a call from the big city Police out in Penn. They found a dead drunk, that had been beaten up and rolled and he was killed in a nasty dark alley altercation. All he had in his clothes is an ID and a piece of paper with Winston's name, address, and phone number.

Winston got his Native American tribe from Oklahoma to claim Hank and bring Hank back and Hank got his service and Hank was buried out on and in their Indian land.

Winston showed me and handed those old journals over to me, which were from back in 1849 on up to 1855. From a family that moved from Iowa on out to Montana. Winston knew I was from Iowa. Okay, but how did those journals get to Oklahoma? Winston had no idea. Winston asked me to take them, or he was going to burn them, that he didn't want them. He knew of no other person who would take them or may even want them. This was back in 1984 down in Lawton, Oklahoma. Those old journals are now joined together and are in here as these stories and as a series of story parts.

What you may look forward to upcoming parts to be reading about in these up - coming story parts series. Later: The Sunday worship service (in a following part) today went well, and they had lunch in the side room of the "High Water Hotel and Café" over in St. Charles, MO.

The women there got the bride, Miss Joanne off and sat her off in the one café side room.

Had Miss Joanne to wait for her Church wedding service time this afternoon. The men got him off and had him in the other hotel café side room and got his lunch. The woman did the same with her. They will move him over to the Church just before their wedding time and others would have her there by 2:00 PM.

Hannah is up - stairs in this same hotel and she is helping Sarah dress. Sarah is the young girl who fell from a horse at age - 9 and a half, and that was when she became blind. Then Sarah

(she is the paddle wheel ship (1849) captain's blind daughter, she is now age - 13) as she says, "I'm not getting married. I'm not having any wedding."

Hannah (her home teacher for being blind) took this to mean she is never planning her wedding because she is a blind and still young, as she is almost an age 14 - year - old girl. Hannah nods back to her. OoPpSs. She is blind. Hannah says "Okay."

"Hannah. Aren't you up set with me? I'm not going to get married. I'm not having any wedding.

"I'm still going to have a boy baby for my Pa. I have his name all picked out. Want to know his name is to be?"

"You have any idea what you are saying? No wedding."

"Yes." She stood there; she is blind, but she is looking right at her blind in home teacher for her to live being blind, soon on her own and for her School Teacher, Miss Hannah.

"Mountain Keya prayed for you, asked you if you trust God. You said, yes, that you trust God. You said you loved God. Also, that you trusted HIM, God. Don't you care?"

"God don't care about me; no one really cares about me. I'm going to doing it 'MY' way."

"All the prayers that were said for you. God is making you well. You are fixed now. Well, almost, all better again. A lot of people are praying for you.

"You even said so yourself, you are now God's child."

"Changed my mind. Who will want to marry me, with me being blind?"

"You are soon going to be 14 - years old; I don't see how you are going to have a baby. For you to have a baby boy for your father."

"That part of me is not broken!" ...

OoPpSs. Hannah is beside herself with Sarah. Hannah needs to go have a talk with Lois about this, her and then with Reverend James too. And then have Reverend James and Lois to go talk with Sarah. (Talk with - not talk to.)

Sarah is again feeling down on herself, she has jumped back over to her old ways, back to her way or no way. She thinks only of herself again, she is a broken young woman. Hannah also has feelings for her to soon to get married. ...

Hannah says, "You are 13 - years old, not a two - year - old. Is not my any kind of my job to take care of any baby for you.

“It will be hard to find others to do that for you.” ...

Some comments received back about the drafts of this story:

Short stories of everyday life during the mid - 1850s expansion out to the west, that is west of the Mississippi River by scouts, prospectors, farmers, ranchers, and many families just seeking land for a better life – really seeking for their new farmland. And hunters, ne'er – do - wells, etc., gave richness and a lot of sadness into the "ownership" of open land cared for and very much respected by the Native Americans there.

Glimpses of that period are given to readers through the diligent work done by John Wiskus. This reader appreciates that effort. - Betty (Beto) Carlson, Los Alamos, New Mexico

Is a delightful book story for all age groups. Tells of a time when America was just beginning to expand its horizons out in the western part of the U.S. The book story parts show some of the hardships of old steam paddle wheelers crews and other people who lived by the river.

Thanks, John Wiskus for a book that has appropriate language. I hope everyone enjoys it, as I did. - Thanks John. Becky Messer – Grafton, North Dakota

This book tells of family life in an age past. Being an avid reader and history buff, it reminds me of stories and events that my grandmother told me about during her lifetime. It is my hope that readers enjoy the stories as much as I did. - Thanks, John! Jonna H. {Wishek} Hochhalter – Wishek, ND

This story tells of a time when our America was just beginning to expand its horizons to the western part of the U.S. in 1849 up to 1855. Story shows the hardships of travelers and other people on the rivers. A great clean story with language for anyone, with no bad words. This above was taken from a few others.

This book has so many good short stories; you are bound to enjoy most of them. Please enjoy them, as we did. - This part above was taken from a few others.

FORWARD

I believe there are about 8,572 more short stories parts left in this series yet to go on from the 1850'ies era recorded in here in these stories, in part, yes in these many story parts, from the people's true heart and soul (also, from their sole of their feet and footprints of where they walked and left their footprints) of the people who wrote the 39 many journals. The Dakota Sioux say, “Not judge until you have walked mile in their moccasins.” Okay, then think of the one set of “Footprints in the Sand” and then also about where these people did really walk, which many – many really did, - walked - back then, as to where both their soul in their life and sole (like footprints – bare feet – and boot prints, too, etc.) left a time lasting imprint. These stories have been retold now for over 175 years. From back then up to today their descendants have retold these stories to friends and to other relatives.

Stories about “Going downriver” and the “River Kid Detectives” that were placed, back then, in soft paper books stories back then called “Yellow Dime Stories”, because the cover was bold black print on heavy yellow paper of 60 - pages and some, a few had up to 96 - pages long and their cost new was 10 - cents.

- - ----- < ^ ~ , , ~ ^ > ----- - -

Stories on soft yellow paper of 60 - pages up 94 - pages

- - ----- < ^ ~ , , ~ ^ > ----- - -

1850 life events were in the new and thicker 2 - bit (new for 25 - cents) new soft paperback books with about 150 - pages. Well, now, you just brought yourself right over here and sit a spell and I'll tell you one story part that is now captured from entries from within the many journals. I and you should wonder and think some, maybe think a lot on these upcoming questions:

Well! What is really going on?

What happens next on the different Captain's ships?

What happened to the little girl at their wagon night camp that saw her Ma and Pa, kids, killed by bad men robbers?

That 8 - year - old girl who saw her sister, brother and her ma and pa and the other wagon folks also killed right along the Missouri River wagon trail.

Then how can the water be rising; this ship is going downriver?"

What happens to the four new Dakota Indian preachers?

What with Indian Running Fawn over the next two - years?

What happens with Indian Moon Song over the next few years?

What happens to Donny at his only age of - 12?

OoPpSs => Was Donny (Art's son) at age - 12, was he really rope hung?

What happens to the blind girl - Sarah next?

Does Sarah ever see again? (Okay. Does Sarah ever get her sight back?)

OoPpSs. Then Sarah gets four - real Angel visits?

(Were those God's Angels from God or from satan as his angels, that paid Sarah a visit on those four visits?)

Were those Angels really from God?

What happens to the four men of Reverend Snow's gang?

What happened to the black man, Lenny, as he rode back up north, to go home?

What happened to the young black girl, YaVon?

What happened to US ARMY man, Mr. Deits, before the next snow comes? As the Dakota Sioux Medicine Man Mountain Keya had told him?

Will Lois find some new friends to fill any loneliness or maybe even a new husband, or maybe both or maybe not?

What is a person to do?
